All,
Thursday, March 20th sounds good.
Hopefully we will be past any winter storms by then.
Thank you,

I am available 3/20 if that works with everyone, guess Todd needs to check with (b) (6) .

If OK by everyone, let me know and will restart a travel authorization (TA) again.

Bart,

A decision has been made to cancel the trip tomorrow. I will be unavailable all of next week. The only other day I can travel to the site will be on Thurs 3/20. Please let me know your availability for that day.

Todd and Marck, please discuss and decide. Rain forecast for tomorrow is 60% and I just read Mark's email cancelling the trip.

I am available Friday of next week if you guys decide for next Friday, or any other day the following week.

Mark,

They still have several inches of snow on the ground. It might be best to reschedule for next week.

(b) (6) prefers a Thursday or Friday. Would next Thursday (13th) work?

Thanks,

No worries. Thanks. Do you have an idea of what site conditions look like? Forecast shows some light rain tomorrow.

Mark,
Sorry for the late response. DEQ was closed yesterday due to the weather.

(b) (6)

See you tomorrow.

Todd,

Do you have an address and owner's name for the property with the oil pit? Still plan on meeting at the site tomorrow at 10am.
